The Tide

Forget my sorrows
Falling into a dream
Power running through my veins
Feels like forever
No time to worry
Slow dancing with myself

Let's break away
Darkness into light
I'm distant and numb
From down to flying high
You don't scare me
Oh I swear I'm giving in
The tide is coming
And I need something

Slow dancing with myself
Mmh oh
Slow dancing dancing

Feels like forever
There's no way out
I won't surrender
But I can't get out
Feels like forever
There's no way out
I won't surrender
And I can't get out

Power through my veins
Mmh oh
Slow dancing dancing with myself
Oh oh
Uh

Last Minute

He ´s walking in the dimming lights
Hard to say but I think he ´s lost his mind
Escaping anything and anywhere
„Oh yeah I ´m fine don ´t be scared
Just got lost fighting myself“

Yeah he gave everything to feel that high again

Why don ´t you keep me
Why did you leave me
Why don ´t you please me
How could you leave me

And then he ´s back again
Walking streets and chasing empty trains
Wishing he ´d be somewhere else
Anything anywhere but here

Yeah he gave everything to feel that high again

Why don ´t you keep me
Why did you leave me
Why don ´t you please me
How could you leave me

Why don ´t you keep me
Why did you leave me
Why don ´t you please me
How could you leave me

Leave me, Keep me

Rainbow

Laying in my bed again
Thinking 'bout you all the time
Staying up till 5AM
Can't get you off my mind
Thoughts are running
Heart beats fast
Feeling guilty
Will this last
Skin so soft
Lips so red

See you in hell
Skin touching skin
Feels so good to sin

And I've got no words
For the way you make me feel
Choosing me over them
Baby that's just unreal
So let's fall in love tonight
Into your white sheets again
Babe you know that it's right

See you in hell
See you in hell
Skin touching skin
Feels so good to sin
When I see you in hell

(Oh-ah-ahh-mh-mhh-oh-ohh-oh-ahh-mhh)

See you in hell
See you in hell

Skin touching skin
Feels so good to sin
See you in hell
Could this be wrong
When I see you in hell

Coffee

You rushed into me, I was in a rush
You said sorry, I knew I was in love
You should know I never had a crush
On anybody else

You asked me if I wanted coffee
Maybe next time, I'm in a hurry
But I'll give you my number you can call me
Anytime you want

I told my friends they laughed at me
Cause you have the same sex as me
Couldn't get the problem problem here
Isn't that a normal thing to be?

Don't care what they're saying
When you called me, I answered right away
We phoned for hours, talked about the world
First date at the lake you said you liked my shirt
You should know I never been in love
With anybody else

You kissed me when we had the coffee
Guess that time I gave away my worries
That day some guys of my school saw me
But fuck them all

They told my friends they laughed at me
Cause you have the same sex as me
Couldn't get the problem problem here
Isn't that a normal thing to be

You kissed me when we had the coffee
Guess that time I gave away my worries
That day some guys of my school saw me
But fuck them all

Wolves

The sunniest day turns into night
She wanders around
Always searching, for something new to hide
The dusk breaks on
The fear's not gone
She won't give up a fight, she won't give up a fight

The sunniest day turns into ice
She's still on the run
Hiding in the shadows, quiet as the night
One look to the stars, everything went dark
She knows it's her time, she knows it's her time

Do you search me
Try to fight me
You long for me
Try to find me
Do you hurt me
Try to search me
You hunt for me
You won't find me

The ash is falling
The sky is burning
She's long gone
Her last breath is done
Is done, is done

Do you search me
Try to fight me
You long for me
Try to find me
Do you hurt me
Try to search me
You hunt for me
You won't find me

Do you hurt me
Try and search me
You long for me
You won't fight me

Fragments

Go on, take me out
Show me to the floor, I'll spin you all around
Sparkle like the mirrorball, right above our heads
But beneath my skin, the fight did just begin
My molecules, they're boiling
Rage climbs through my throat
I swallow my pride
You know that I'm all in for this ride
For this ride, for this ride

Cross the border
Cross the line
One day manic
Next day fine
Screaming, crying
Feels like dying
The mirrorball
In fragments on the floor

My smile's contagious
I'll tip toe through your mind
You know I'll be the fun
Although I'm not alright
You whisper in my ear, the wheels start to spin
My never ending thoughts
Hanging in the air

I feel your stare on my skin
On my skin
My endurance is paper-thin
Is paper-thin

Cross the border
Cross the line
One day manic
Next day fine
Screaming, crying
Feels like dying
The mirrorball
In fragments on the floor

I wanna spill my guts
Cut my mind in pieces
The noose tightens around
Will escape this feeling ?
I wanna spill my guts
Cut my mind in pieces
The noose tightens around
Will I escape my demons?

Cross the border

Cross the line

One day manic

Next day fine

Screaming, crying

Feels like dying

The mirrorball

In fragments on the floor

Life

I scream louder than the voices from inside
I turn days into nights
Make myself stay awake to feel every second of my life
Which I wasted in believing lies

Tell me
What's the meaning
Of drowning in sorrows
Swimming in tears
Hiding from monsters
I know aren't real

What is life
What 's the meaning
Do I belong here
Or am I dreaming
Give me something to stop hiding
Give me something to stop crying
Give me something to stop hiding
Give me something to stop crying

I escape reality
Dreaming into worlds and fantasies
Don't want to see your world no more
That is my misery

Tell me
What's the meaning
Of drowning in sorrows
Swimming in tears
Hiding from monsters
I know aren't real

What is life
What 's the meaning
Do I belong here
Or am I dreaming
Give me something to stop hiding
Give me something to stop crying
Give me something to stop hiding
Give me something to stop crying

What is life
What 's the meaning
Do I belong here
Or am I dreaming
Give me something to stop hiding
Give me something to stop crying
Give me something to stop hiding
Oh uh oh

Give me something to stop crying

Crying
